

1997	Architect	Reciprocity Registration # 2085	State of Montana
1996	NCARB	Certificate # 48268	Seattle, Washington
1993	post-graduate	University of Washington (towards an M. Arch)	Seattle, Washington
1992	Certificate	Integrative Program in Administration; U. of W.;	Seattle, Washington
1990	Associate	Spectrum Design Group	Seattle, Washington
1988	Architect	Registered # 5065	State of Washington
1981	B. Arch.	Montana State University;	Bozeman, Montana
1976	A. F.A.	Berkshire Community College;	Pittsfield, Massachusetts principal	Crazy Mountain LineWorks; Elliott Bay LineWorks; October 1988 to present. Sole proprietorship: Courting clients in graphic design, feasibility proposals and architecture: building types include; residential, hospitality and commercial. From 1988 through 1993 I used this business for designing during durations of diminished duties at Spectrum Design Group, P.S. and while continuing my education towards a Master of Architecture degree.		Bozeman, Montana Seattle, Washington research assistant	Department of Urban Design and Planning , Fall 1992 to Spring 1993. Prepared the groundwork for a study of neighborhood commercial areas and districts under Professor George Rolff.		University of Washington architect	Spectrum Design Group, P.S.; August 1985 to October 1991. Duties: design and development, contract documents and construction administration for a diversity of building types spanning from residential through hospitality and from commercial to medical. Learned and set up Autocad for design development as well as construction documents. Project Architect for projects up to $7.0 million. Supervisor: Don Flynn, principal. Spectrum Design Group evolved from Lee Loveland Associates, P.S. in 1988.		Seattle, Washington architect in training	The NBBJ Group; October 1984 to August 1985. Duties: design development for Swedish Hospital with Don Winklman; developed contract documents for Swedish Hospital under Trever Hart and Stewart Charles; developed contract documents for Lomalinda Hospital under Lee Sutfin.		Seattle, Washington a.i.t.	James R. McDonald, Architects P.C.; March 1983 to August 1984. Duties: varied from schematic design to construction administration with both new residential and commercial construction as well as historic preservation. Supervisors: Robert Stouffer and Wally Roberts.		Missoula, Montana a.i.t.	R. Terry Johnson, Architects P.C.; August 1981 to September 1982. Duties: varied from schematic design to construction administration under the direction of Fred Topel.		Great Falls, Montana teaching assistant	Department of Architecture , Fall 1980 to Spring 1981. Taught a weekly lab, developed assignments and corrected and graded student work under Professor Elmire Smyrl.		Montana State University a.i.t.	T[□] Ranch; Intermittent throughout school (MSU). Under the guidance of Jon Foote.		Livingston, Montana a.i.t.	Hallock Architects; July 1975 to September 1976. Apprenticed under Terry Hallock.		Pittsfield, Massachusetts carpenter	Restoration Inc.; June 1972 to July 1975. Carpenter, carpenter's helper and laborer.		Lenox, Massachusetts ski instructor	Big Sky, Stevens Pass, Bridger Bowl and Bousquets ski areas; PSIA full certified (level III) Sixteen seasons teaching people new skills and improving their present skills. docent	Woodland Park Zoo; 1990 to 1998. Disseminating environmental and zoological information to the public through a variety of formats. Behavioral observation for research documentation.		Seattle, Washington sandwich technician.	Pickle Barrel; Concurrent with MSU; Designing Epicurean Delights, while conducting consumer consultations concerning client's criteria.		Bozeman, Montana